Maysville's Foremost Clothiers

Correspondence

Springdale

Mrs. Nettie Cobb, Miss Nell Royce and Mrs. G. W. Hook were shopping in Maysville Thursday.

Mrs. Virgie Ficus and sister, Miss Cora Sartain came up from Cincinnati to spend Christmas with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Sartain.

The Christmas party given by Davis Hull at his father's home near Rectorville, was pronounced by the guests from this place to be a very pleasant affair.

It is reported that Mrs. Martha Redman has sold her farm and will move to Rectorville.

Robert Vaughn and wife report the arrival in their home of a fine son.

J. V. McClure passed from this life December 17, aged 67 years. Burial at East Fork Cemetery.

Mrs. Drusilla Morrison died at her home near here Saturday after several months illness.

Oliver Froyes received the sad news Friday of the death of his mother in Bath county. She formerly resided here.

Mrs. William Leming, Mrs. D. Webster, Mr. Ed Lawrence and Mr. G. D. Jenkins are all reported on the sick list and C. P. Vawter is suffering from a very painful boil on his neck.

Their many friends here were pleased to see the names of Misses Aline Day and Lillian Garrett on the December Honor Roll of the Plumville school.

Mrs. William Wilson of Trinity is spending the holidays with her son, C. B. Wilson and family.

Steamboats could not land here Wednesday because of the floating ice in the river and a large consignment of cattle and hogs which were here awaiting shipment, had to be driven around the long and steep road to Maysville markets at considerable loss to their owners. Had the level, short strip of road between Springdale and the Lock and Dam been opened up this loss would have been less.

"THE STRENGTH OF THE WEAK"

"The Strength of the Weak", based upon one of the greatest problem-plays ever seen upon the stage, will be the attraction at the Pastime today. Mary Fuller has been chosen to interpret the highly emotional role of Pauline D'Arcy, an orphan girl who has been betrayed by her legal guardian. In later years she falls in love with the son of the man who ruined her. Here is the problem: What could she do under the circumstances, loving the man she did, while realizing her youthful mistake? Children under 16 years not admitted.

MRS. O. N. WEAVER

Mrs. O. N. Weaver died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Charles T. Biggers of Dover, yesterday afternoon at 1:35 o'clock from infirmities of age. Mrs. Weaver was one of the oldest women in this county, she being 83 years of age. She was the widow of the late Squire O. N. Weaver. Mrs. Weaver had suffered a number of accidents in the past several months but her death was not due to these. She is survived by several children and one brother, Mr. W. D. Frasse of Dover, and one sister, Mrs. H. B. Cushman of Flemingsburg. The funeral announcement has not been made as yet.

REPORT OF THE CHRISTMAS DINNER

The Free Dinner to needy colored children and parents of this city was given at the Colored High School building Tuesday, December 26. The number that dined at the dinner and to whom dinners were sent was 91. Every bit of food of any kind that was left after the dinner was sent to needy homes.

The dinner consisted of vegetable soup with crackers, roast beef with gravy and dressing, mashed potatoes, peas, pickles, bread and butter, celery, coffee and cake. In addition to this, each one was given an orange, a banana, an apple, candy and nuts.

Besides what the grocers gave out of their stock of goods toward this dinner, the good people loaned $28.25 in cash. $24.25 was spent on the dinner leaving $4.00 yet to be disposed of. Those who donated to the success of this dinner either in cash or out of their stock of goods, not only showed the highest spirit of unselfish, useful giving, but it also brought to light that Maysville has a class of white people that represent the Christian religion in its absolute purity. It is no easy task for most people to render unselfish aid beyond their own social group or race. After all, 90 per cent of those who are able to give in the world deserve this rare privilege regardless of our criticism of the rich or well-to-do.

For the committee, Mrs. Sallie Marshall, Mrs. W. C. Patton, Mrs. Jessie Turner, Mrs. John Taylor and myself, I wish to express the highest appreciation to those who gave so liberally to the dinner. Also wish to express kindest thanks to the 25 business men and kind ladies who made no distinction as to race in the distribution of gifts from the Christmas tree. It was a noble piece of work.

Yours sincerely,
W. H. HUMPHREY.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.
